● From your President:-

Hello Everyone,

I was not at the last meeting. I had a date with the Caboolture Private Hospital the following day. Many thanks to Allan for filling in for me. This is the last bulletin this year. Thanks to all who have sent me articles and helped in any way over the last 12 months. We have a great club with good people in it. Keep up the good work. We may be small but the majority of us support one another. David & I hope you all have a very happy Christmas and prosperous new year. Keep well.

See you at the BBQ and November meeting. Di

🌀 November Meeting

As always this is our break up meeting. It will be run the same as always. Meeting first, don't forget to bring your plants for benching, then supper and rolling raffle. The club will supply the chicken and we ask members to bring a plate also. We also would like all members to bring a rolling raffle or two to add to the ones the club purchases. Please bring something you would like to win yourself.

■ November Picnic

We are having a club picnic on the banks of the Pumicestone passage at Bellara on November 22nd Sunday starting around 10am with morning tea then a BBQ lunch . This is all supplied by the club. Just arrive and enjoy yourself. We are erecting a gazebo for shade. Bring a chair and your fishing line or a good book or whatever you enjoy for a day at the beach. The gazebo is being erected opposite Dolphin Street. There is plenty of room and an amenities block there. Turn right over the bridge.

■ December NO MEETING

■ Sunday Workshop

The last workshop was really enjoyable. We repotted a couple of large plants from different genera's. Ernie spoke on growing orchids on trees around the garden. We had some lively chats about different medium with more experienced growers. (as we all know everyone has a different way to pot & grow). It was a great day. Next New growers is November 22nd Sunday. This is a combined day on the waterfront with the club. See paragraph above. Hope to see everyone there. See back page .

November Show

This was a really good show. We had no idea what to expect from this show but we all were pleasantly surprised. Firstly I must thank all other societies who supported this show. Some made such an effort to bench plants they barely fitted themselves in the car. We were really grateful for this and whatever we do down the track we will always support your shows. Pumicestone members came out in force to help. We had plenty of helpers and judging by their comments when they left all had a really enjoyable time. Thank you all. We had a nice visit from Bertha, and Peter came up from northern rivers. It was good to see you both. This year our judges came from QOS. They were shocked to see the standard of the plants on the bench. We were congratulated for such a good display. That was nice to hear. Our Grand Champion winner bought his plant from Redlands O/S. Congratulations to you Tony. Good job everyone. We can only go from strength to strength.

Two Irish men, Mick and Paddy, were doing some carpentry work on Mick's house. Paddy, who was nailing down house siding, would reach into his nail pouch, pull out a nail, and either toss it over his shoulder or nail it in. Mick, figuring this was worth looking into, asked, 'Why are you throwing those nails away?' Paddy explained, 'When I pull a nail out of my pouch, about half of them have the head on the wrong end, and I throw them away.' Mick got very upset and said, 'Don't be silly! Those nails aren't defective! They're for the other side of the house.'

A duck walks into a pub and orders a pint of beer and a ham sandwich. The barman looks at him and says, "Hang on! You're a duck." "I see your eyes are working," replies the duck. "And you can talk!" exclaims the barman.

"I see your ears are working, too," says the duck. "Now if you don't mind, can I have my beer and my sandwich please?" "Certainly, sorry about that," says the barman as he pulls the duck's pint. "It's just we don't get many ducks in this pub. What are you doing round this way?" "I'm working on the building site across the road," explains the duck. "I'm a plasterer." The flabbergasted barman cannot believe the duck and wants to learn more, but takes the hint when the duck pulls out a newspaper from his bag and proceeds to read it.

So, the duck reads his paper, drinks his beer, eats his sandwich, bids the barman good day and leaves. The same thing happens for two weeks. Then one day the circus comes to town. The ringmaster comes into the pub for a pint and the barman says to him "You're with the circus, aren't you? Well, I know this duck that could be just brilliant in your circus. He talks, drinks beer, eats sandwiches, reads the newspaper and everything!" "Sounds marvellous," says the ringmaster, handing over his business card. "Get him to give me a call."

So the next day when the duck comes into the pub the barman says, "Hey Mr. Duck, I reckon I can line you up with a top job, paying really good money."

"I'm always looking for the next job," says the duck. "Where is it?"

"At the circus," says the barman. "The circus?" repeats the duck.

"That's right," replies the barman. "The circus?" the duck asks again. "That place with the big tent?" "Yeah," the barman replies.

"With all the animals who live in cages, and performers who live in caravans?" says the duck. "Of course," the barman replies.

"And the tent has canvas sides and a big canvas roof with a hole in the middle?" persists the duck. "That's right!" says the barman.

The duck shakes his head in amazement, and says

"What the * would they want with a plasterer??!"
