Hello Members,

Hope you all had a very nice Christmas and a very Happy New Year.

David and I had a lovely Christmas Day and went to Bribie to watch the fireworks on New Years Eve.

You will see on page 4 our guest speakers for the first half of the year.

We have some really interesting speakers this year so please come to the meetings to support them.

Our first meetings in January will both be hands on. (repotting) We have some compots for you to pot a plant for yourself. It's a great way to learn while you have some experienced growers around to help.

See you at the meetings.

Di.

A funeral service is being held for a woman who has just passed away. At the end of the service, the pallbearers are carrying the casket out when they accidentally bump into a wall, jarring the casket. They hear a faint moan. They open the casket and find that the woman is actually alive! She lives for ten more years, and then dies. Once again, a ceremony is held, and at the end of it, the pallbearers are again carrying out the casket. As they carry the casket towards the door, the husband cries out, 'Watch that wall!
